Gesture to Astro Marine Corps - Creep Soft (1989)

In League of Tanks we have included a gesture to Astro Marine Corps Game by Topo Soft. When the game begins, a tank-eating plant starts moving around the stages. It spawns randomly hindering the player gameplay. When the tank-eating plant spawns at a point, it has an attack cooldown to let the player scape the plant attack in case it spawns at player's location. If any player touches the tank-eating plant, it will kill him.

In Astro Marine Corps, when a plant enemy kills the player, a giant plant eats him, in this way we developed a plant enemy that kills any player.

Player 1 being killed by the plant
